All the trouble began several months partment made by ex-Fire Commissioner Gray in his letter of resignation, seems to have caused as much surprise to ex-Commissioner Gray himself as to the politicians who were discussing it this morning.

The investigation has been referred by the Mayor to the Commissioners of Accounts, but whether that body or the Grand Jury will first take hold of the subject is a matter yet to be determined. Commissioner Gray, among other things, charged that excessive prices were being paid by the Department for health in one instance a public record had been destroyed, the record being a protest witten by him against the auditing of a bill which he believed to be excessive.

The destroying of a public record is a more desired and a signal of the political street exchange of the operating department of the other of the operating department of the other of the operating department. I am outside the Department now and they have no power over me to summon me before them or otherwise. The case, however, has got to that stare where I must engage counsel. I am not a lawyer myself and know nothing of my rights or duties. I will see a lawyer to-day, and it is probable that more light will be thrown on the subject.

"I understand that Commissioner Elekhoff denies that any public record has been destroyed. Well, we shall see about that later. I think Col. Fellows's statement that he will take the matter to the Grand Jury If charges are made is eminently fair. After I have seen counsel I may call upon the District-Attorney.

"It would scarcely be fair," added Mr. Gray, "for me to say anything about the charges at present. It is enough that when I entered the Department I found a condition of affairs that demanded immediate attention. Exorbitant prices were being paid for everything, and this I offered to prove by two witnesses.

"It was the intention that there should."

and this I offered to prove by two witnesses.

"It was the intention that there should be no publicity, and a resolution was passed that no one should attend the meeting called for the purpose of hearing the charges but myself and the two witnesses referred to. That meeting, as you know, was held some time aso, and I was surprised to find over one hundred people present. I never brought them there.
